Bauhaus Restaurant is very excited to announce an upcoming chef collaboration with German culinary legend, Harald Wohlfahrt.

On January 30th and 31st, 2018, Bauhaus Restaurant will play host to guest chef Harald Wohlfahrt for two exclusive dinners. Harald Wohlfahrt is Germany's most accomplished chef, having held 3 Michelin stars at his restaurant, Die Schwarzwaldstube, for 25 years, and is the only German chef to accomplish such a feat.

“Wohlfahrt is a legend,” said Uwe Boll, owner of Bauhaus Restaurant and prolific film director. “He is Germany’s own Paul Bocuse, and has trained many German chefs that hold Michelin stars today. We are looking forward to hosting Harald Wohlfahrt this winter.”

Harald Wohlfahrt’s visit to Bauhaus is inspired by the high-concept chef collaborations that occur around the world, where great minds come together to create something incredible. This collaboration is sponsored in part by Zwilling J.A. Henckels, Trump International Hotel & Tower Vancouver, Aventura Gold Corp., Thomas Haas, Le Vieux Pin Winery, La Stella Winery, Weingut Robert Weil, and Little Engine Wines. Tickets can be purchased by calling Bauhaus Restaurant’s General Manager, Daniel Klintworth, at 1-604-974-1147.
